Wednesday, September 6, 2023 • 6:30 PM

What will the new school year be like for Connecticut's special education students? How will the shortage of teachers and staff affect students with disabilities? What is being done to support public school students with emotional disabilities? What's new this year for older students who attend transition programs?

The next edition of Answers: Special Education Today will explore the answers to these questions and more. Also, there will be interviews with special guests Bryan Klimkiewicz, Special Education Director for the Connecticut State Department of Education and Brian Gresko, Transition Advisor for the Connecticut Department of Developmental Services.

As always, there will be time for Q&A with participants during this live webinar. Questions may also be submitted in advance to kdaly@pathct.org
